Helpful online resources on violent extremism and online safety

Step Together

Resource	About	Where to go
Step Together	> Podcasts, flyers, videos, information, newsletter and more > Step Together provides education and practical resources to better support and empower communities to stand united against the threat of violent extremism > In a variety of accessible formats > Free	View here

eSafety Commissioner

Resource	About	Where to go
eSafety Commissioner	> The eSafety website provides information and advice to help people stay safe, responsible, and aware while using the internet and digital technology > Free	View here
Supporting young men online	> Explores young men's experiences and the ways that they can be supported online to develop healthy and positive masculinities > Free	View here
Social Media age restrictions and your family	> Information to help you and your child under 16 navigate the Social Media restrictions > Free	View here
The eSafety Guide	> Find out how to protect your personal information and report harmful content on common social media, games, apps and sites > Free	View here

Other Resources

Resource	About	Where to go
All Together Now	> Information and webinars/training on topics such as racism, violent extremism, conspiracy theories and fake news, countering far-right extremism and more > Fees may apply	View here
AVERT	> AVERT regularly hosts and records events and webinars featuring the latest research on topics related to violent extremism, terrorism and political violence, radicalisation and countering violent extremism > Fees may apply	View here
Australian Federal Police (AFP)	> Information on a range of crimes the AFP investigate and combat across Australia and its territories - including terrorism, hate crimes and more > Free	View here
Government of Western Australia	> Find resources and support services if you are concerned someone you know might be on a pathway towards violent extremism > Free	View here
NSW Police Force	> Information on hate crimes and cyber bullying > Free	View here
Remove Hate from the Debate	> Online safety – Interactive website on how to have positive interactions online > Free	View here
Step Together support services and programs	> A comprehensive list of support services and programs > Free	View here
NAPCAN	> Love Bites and Love Bites Junior are extremely successful Respectful Relationships Education Programs for young people aged 11-17 years > Free	View here